As you can see, the Annual Staff worked hard through the year to put together this annual. It's a dirty job, but somebody has to do it! 87-88 Annual Staff: Raymon Green, Beth Nelle, Robin Nelle, Scott Moore, Randy Hines, Shannon Cline, and Brent Seely.

We dedicate this book to Steve Bryant:

"Forever Eighteen" by Denise Moore Grammer

Such a strong boy
And your eyes how they gleam
Your smile that's so warm
Is forever eighteen.

The girls how they cheered
For the star of the team
Catching the passes
Of forever eighteen.

Oh how our hearts
Just opened up and cried
On that terrible morning
We found out you'd died.

The tears like rivers
Down our faces did stream
For the boy who would never
Finish being eighteen.

And on the day
That we laid you to rest,
The skies opened up
And tried their best

To cry out their sorrows
To us it did seem
For the boy who died
At only eighteen.

And then when we'd cried
And our hearts were all drained
The glorious sun shown
And dried up the rain.
Giving us the promise
That we'd see you again.

Thank you, Dear God
For that shining "Son"
Who gave us the promise
That death has not won.

See you in heaven, Steve,
And when we get there it'll seem
Like only yesterday
When we were all eighteen.

And when time starts to turn
Our hair into grey
We'll still be thinking
Every day
Of the boy who's face
Just seemed to beam
With the joy and happiness
Of being eighteen.

Born May 9, 1969
Died Sept. 26, 1987

All of us who knew Steve remember him in our own way. The student body participated in a ceremony on the football field where Steve's number was retired for the season. But there are other memories of Steve, as well. Below are some of the things we remember.

If you are a dreamer,
Come in.
If you are a dreamer, a
wisher,
A hope-er, a pray-er;
if you're a pretender,
Come in,
For we have some tales
to spin.
Come in, come in . . .

School started in Cumby with shiny floors and 2 new administrators. The students were ready, and so began the year of the '87-'88 seniors. A wild energy came with the beginning of the football season, and the cheerleaders and drill team were responsible for school spirit. Too soon, the football season was over - homecoming king and queen were crowned, and the seniors were honored with a special ceremony because this was their last season with Cumby High. In October, the annual carnival proved to be a big success for the PTO. One sad note marred the year when we lost one of our own, Steve Bryant. With full hearts we said good-bye to Steve.

This was the year we lost football one month and got it back the next. Things were never dull in the '87-'88 year. To encourage attendance, the new administration decided on cash bonuses - Sharon Gilchrest won $100.00. Several fads dominated the year. One was puff paint. Faces and words were puffed on shirts, shoes, and pants. All ages were outside during lunch but the high school boys started an unusual "fad" - they had a wild desire for girl's purses. Basketball season started as energetically as the football season did. The teams played hard, and the season ended with Brenda Anderwald being chosen as the basketball queen and Raymon Green as the beau. Christmas was ushered in with the Cumby Christmas parade, class parties, and then we were out for the holidays. The biggest surprise of the year came in January - it snowed! - and we missed several days of school.

Two roads diverged in a wood . . .
I took the one less traveled by,
And that has made all the difference.

Every spring brings the Jr./Sr. Prom and baseball. The baseball team ended the season 2nd in District. Two traditions for the end of the year are Black Jack Grove day, and the E.T. sport's competition for the elementary. On May 26th the 8th grade had its graduation ceremony, and on May 27th the 87-88 Seniors walked across the gym floor in cap and gown. By the end of the year, everyone was tired; the teachers were still trying to smile but they had ceased to care about anything (including their appearance - bottom right) except getting out of school. The last day of the year was ALMOST uneventful. One teacher did discover his car looking a little differently in the afternoon than when he parked it that morning (bottom middle). We all learned a lot this year, especially those of us on the annual staff. We have finally learned how to spell our new superintendent's name - ALLcorn.

Beta Club

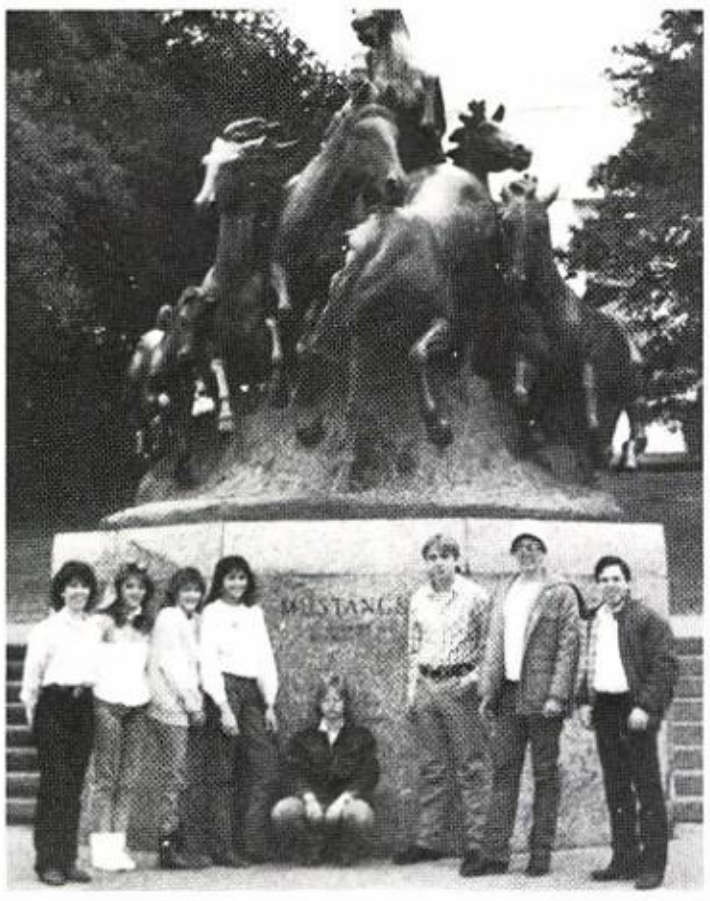
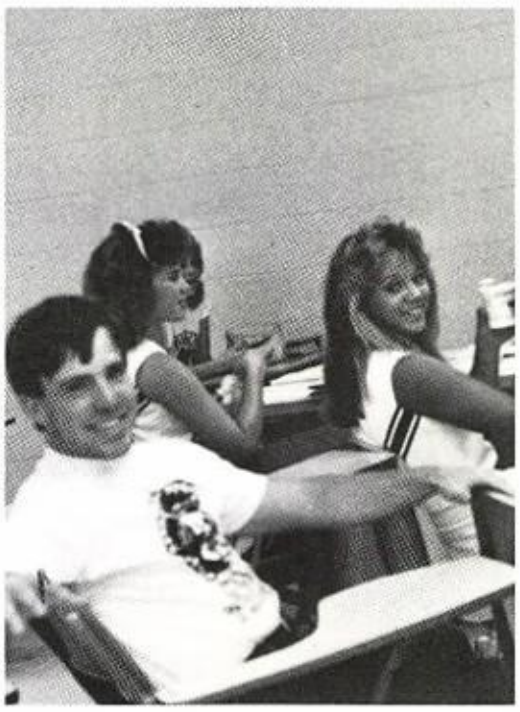
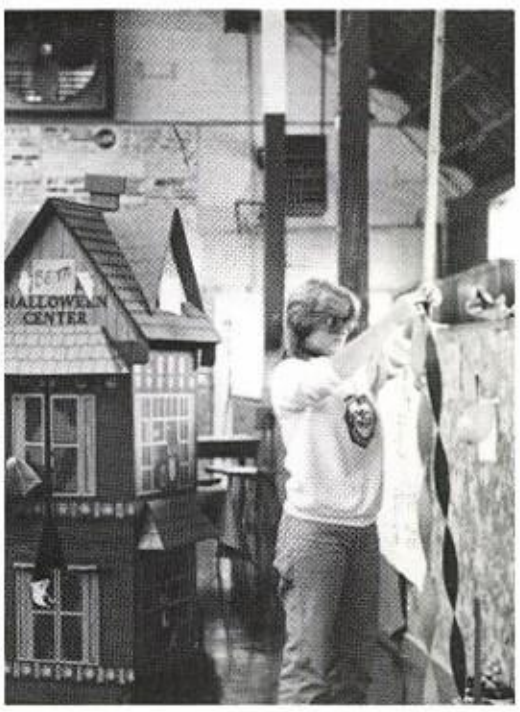
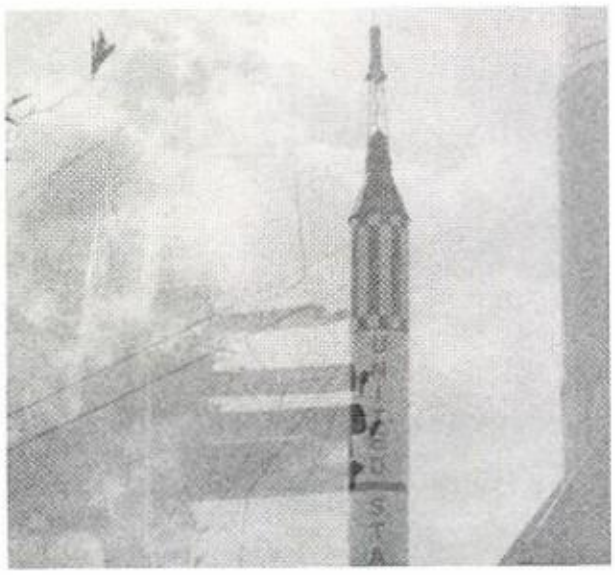
The Beta Club is an honor society that works for the community. This year the club had a food drive and a jump rope for heart contest. They also took a trip to Austin, Texas for the state convention. It's not all work at the convention as you can see in the picture upper left corner. Beta Club Members: Karen Cole, sponsor; L. to R.: Cindy Speights; Brenda Anderwald; Jay Petty; Jeff Wheat; Shelley Neal.









This year, Cumby's Science Club took a trip to N.A.S.A. They were so inspired that they tried to build their own rocket. Members L. to R.: Mac Thompson; Scott Moore; Michael Keim; Jay Petty; Jeff Wheat; Brian Seely; Cody Monroe; Brad Jones; Randy Hines; Mary Lee; Delena Chittendon; Beth Nelle; Front: Beth Mattison.

The F.H.A. attended a state convention this year, and those involved in classes learn skills necessary to run a household. F.H.A. members are: L. to R.: Stefanie Petty, Holly Harris, Shonda Hines, Mrs. Murray, Meredith Patterson. Thanks to the F.H.A. classes for the delicious teas that the teachers always look forward to.

Science Club and F.H.A.

F.F.A.

Cumby's FFA serves the community and school in many ways. Through Bill Jenkins' direction, the students learn to repair mowers and to do woodworking. From picking up trash in the community to building shelves for the school's bookroom, the Cumby FFA chapter lives by its motto.

Sports

The Game was ended, and the noise at last had died away, and now they gathered up the boys where they in pieces lay. And one was hammered in the ground by many a jolt and jar; some fragments never have been found, they flew away so far. They found a stack of tawny hair, some fourteen cubits high; it was the halfback, lying there, where he had crawled to die. They placed the pieces on a door, and from the crimson field, that hero then they gently bore, like soldier on his shield. The surgeon toiled the livelong night above the gory wreck; he got the ribs adjusted right, the wishbone and the neck. He soldered on the ears and toes, and got the spine in place, and fixed a guttapercha nose upon the mangled face. And then he washed his hands and said: "I'm glad that task is done!" The halfback raised his fractured head and cried: "I call this fun!"

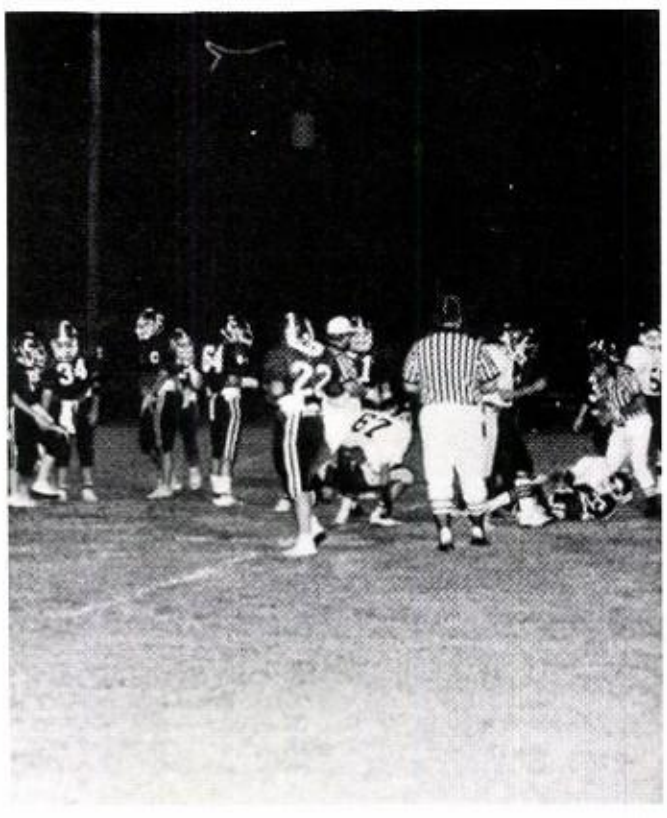
I really don't think carrying chairs is the way to build muscles.



Are we having fun yet, Coach?

Homecoming '87-'88

Homecoming nominees were: Far Left: Brenda Anderwald, Renee' Rhodes. Center: (and the winner of the crown) Angie Jenkins and Mr. Football of '87-'88, Raymon Green. Bottom Left: Amy Faunce, Shelly Neal.

The week of homecoming was full of fun. Every day the students dressed according to the theme of the day. There was a bonfire in the middle of the week, and after the game a homecoming dance was held in the gym.

Homecoming Dance '87-'88

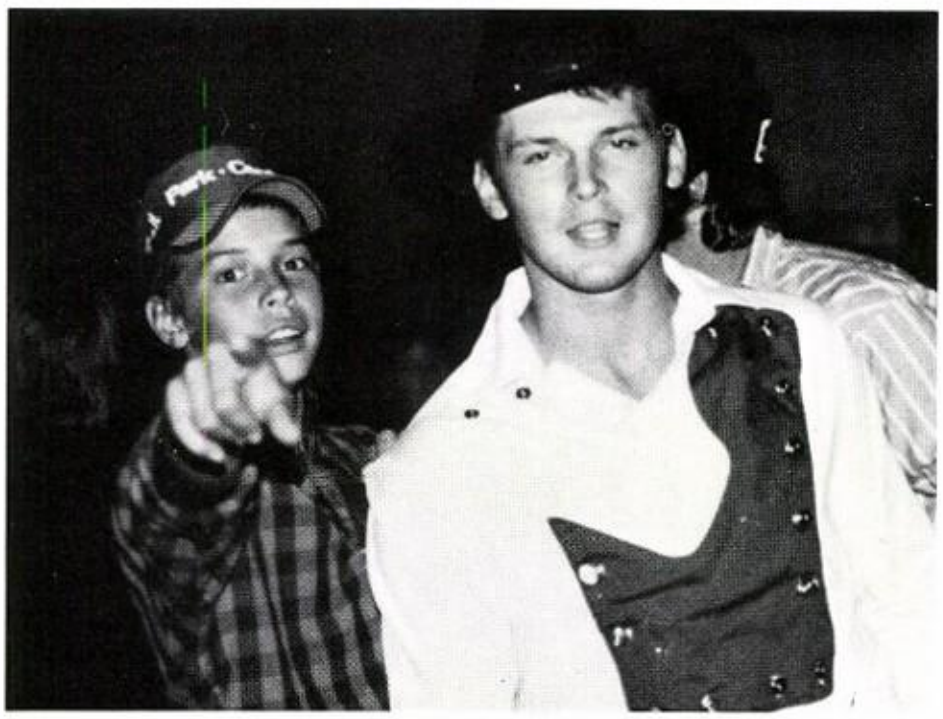
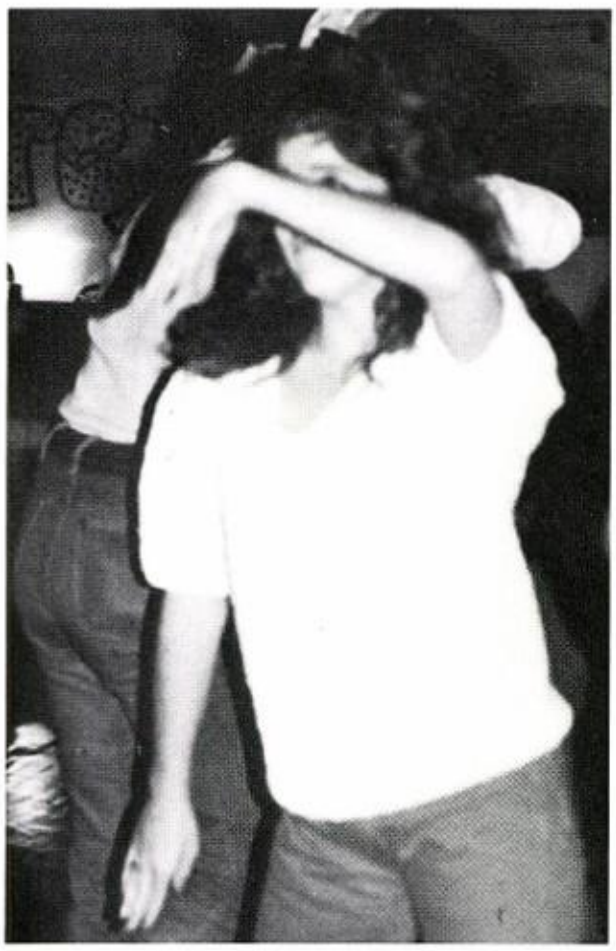
Grades 7 through 12 are invited to the homecoming dance every year, and all grades love a good party. There were no wall flowers this night!

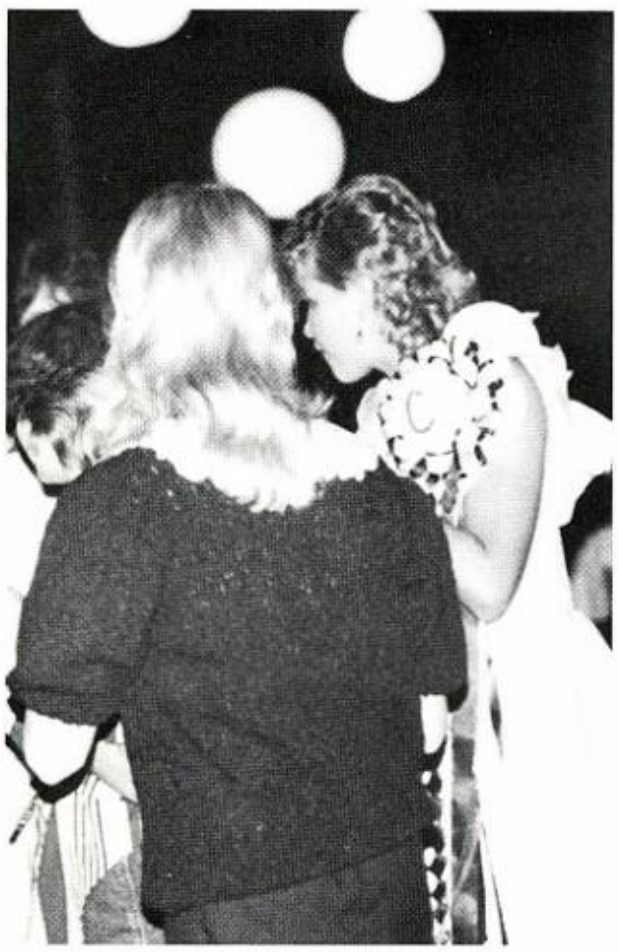


Look! Over there's a good lookin' babe. Go get her.

Who am I dancing with anyway? Which way did he go?



Some people even dance with their hands.



Homecoming night is one for dancing and secrets!

Junior High Football

The Junior High team spends long hours in practice as do the High School Varsity players.

The practice these students put in and the games that they play, prepare them for the "big time" - playing on the Varsity team.

These guys (and girl) have as much spirit as anyone does, and as you can tell, they get excited when they make the play.

Varsity and Junior Varsity Volleyball

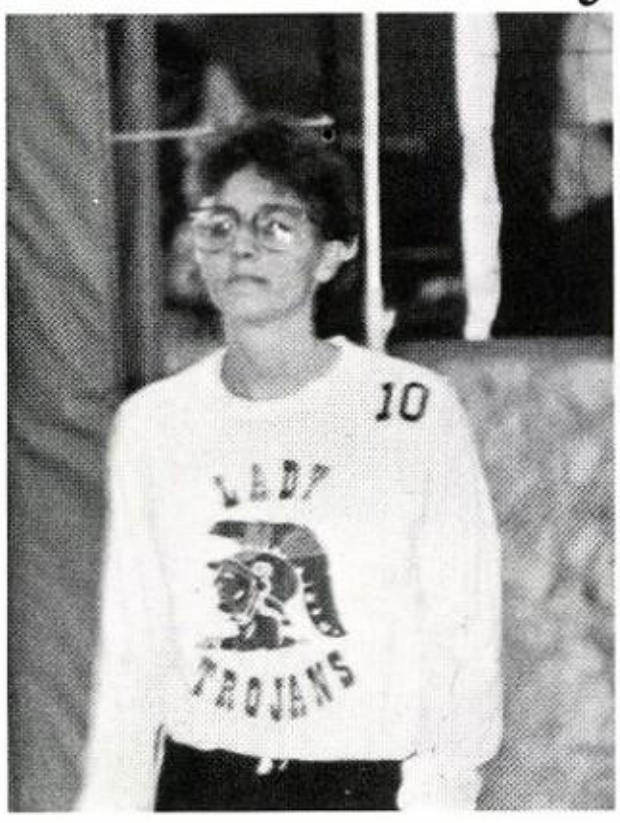
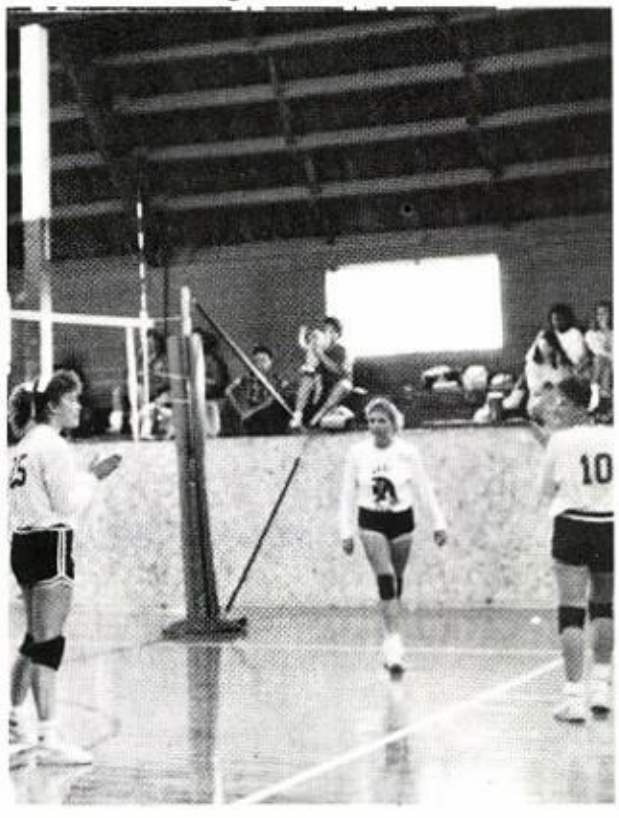
Quick, Shelley! Does my hair look ok?



Go ahead. Hit me with that ball! Make my day!!!



Hey, Hey - we want to play - Vol - ley - ball!!

Volleyball

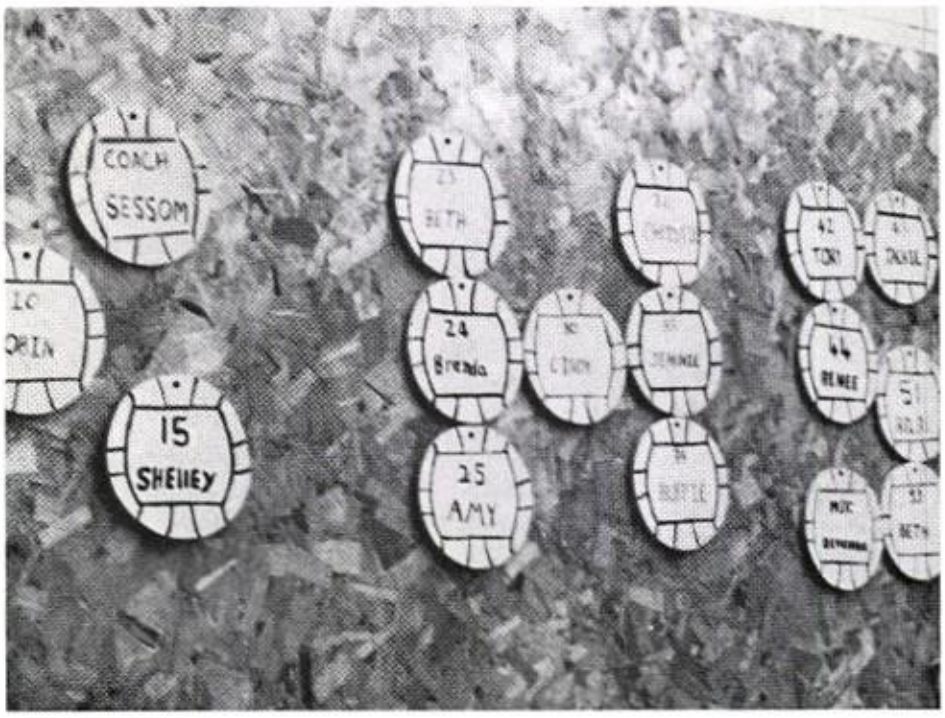
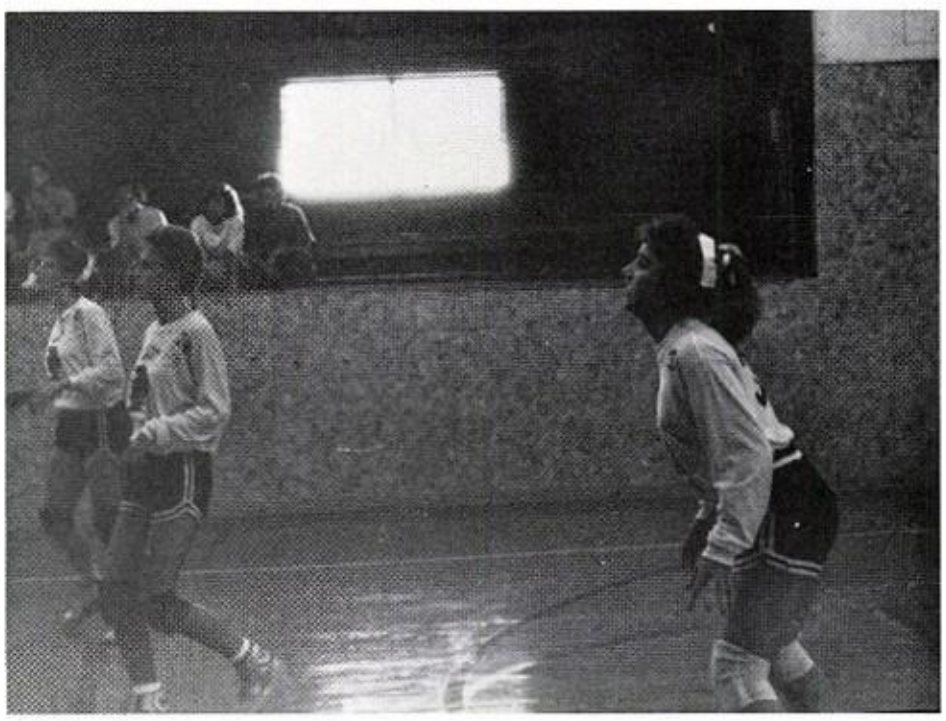
Cumby's Volleyball team has been strong in past years. This year was no exception either. The Varsity team was District Runners-Up; Bi-District Champs; and Area Qualifiers.

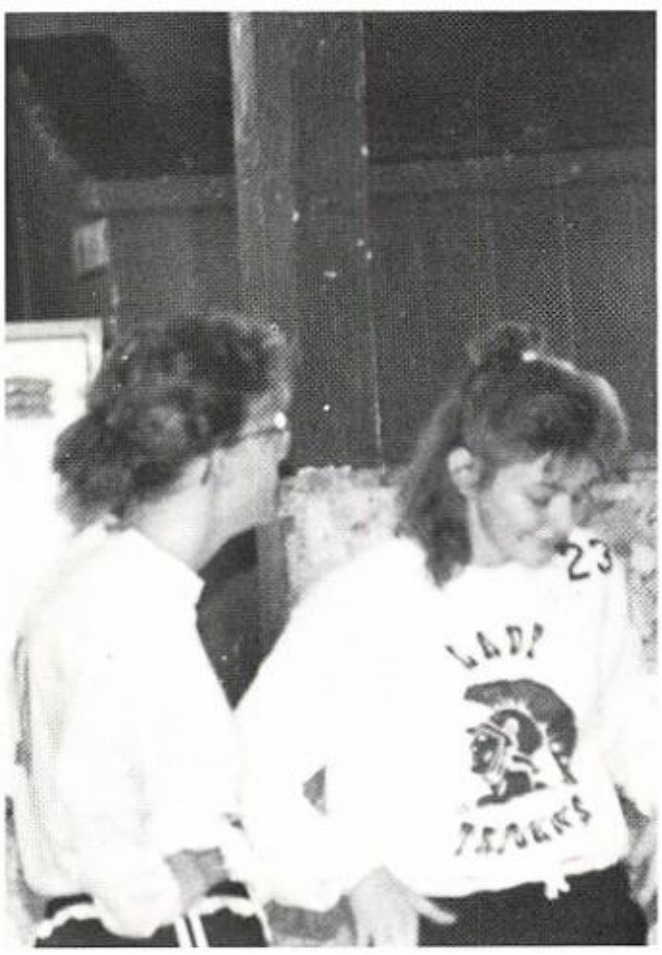
Congratulations on a job well done!

Above, the girls concentrate on the coming game and get ready to win.

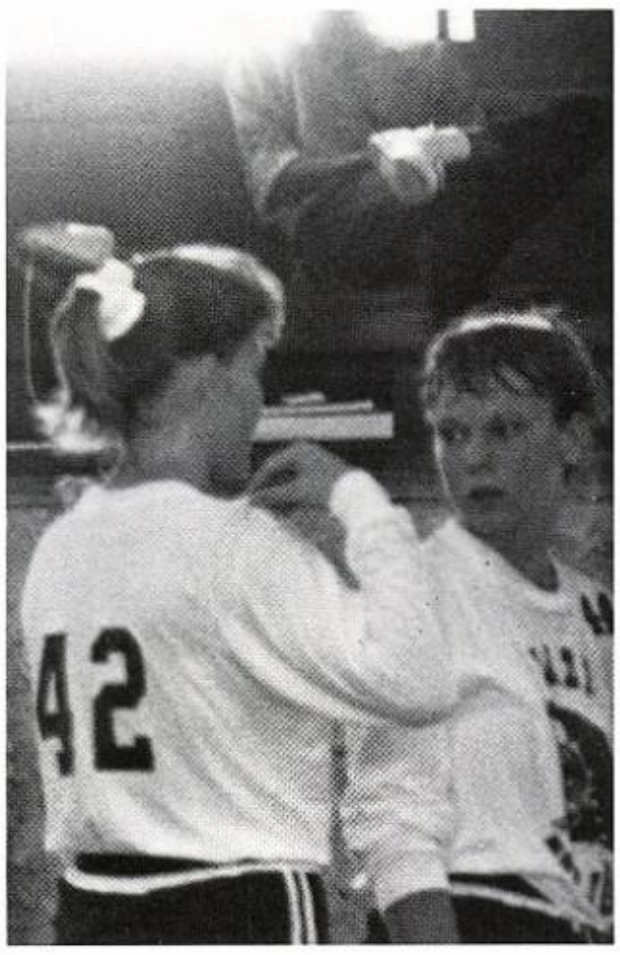




Volleyball is a game that requires discipline and skill. Above Jeannie watches for the ball to come her way.



No one is harder on an athlete who misses a chance, as is the player who "messed up".



This game takes lots of energy, and by the end of the game everyone is hot and exhausted.

The worst moment in any game is when you know that victory or defeat rests in your hands.

Junior High Volleyball Team

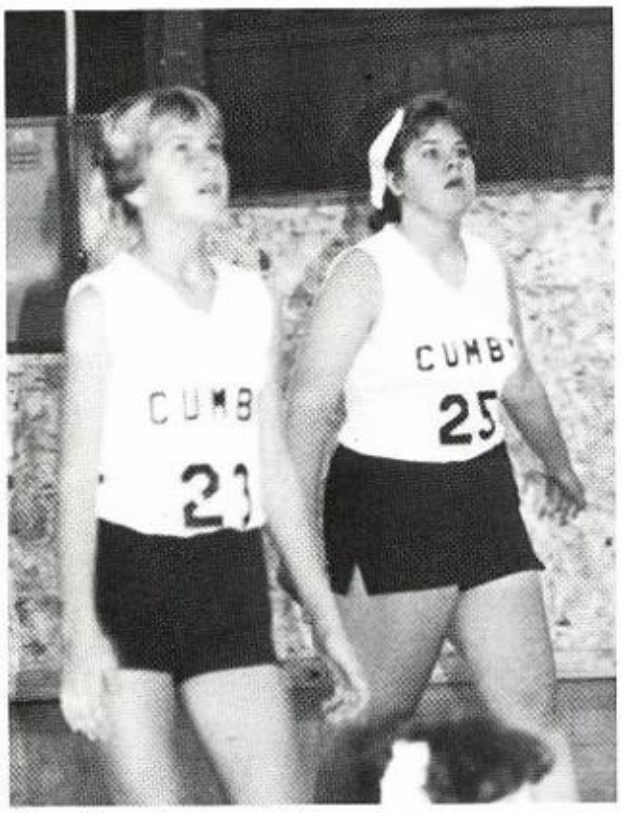
These girls worked hard all year. They are learning the skills now that will make them winning Varsity players in the future.



It takes concentration to make a good Volleyball player. The two girls above have that!!

Volleyball games aren't quiet. The team players encourage each other, and sometimes taunt the other team.

Varsity Cheerleaders

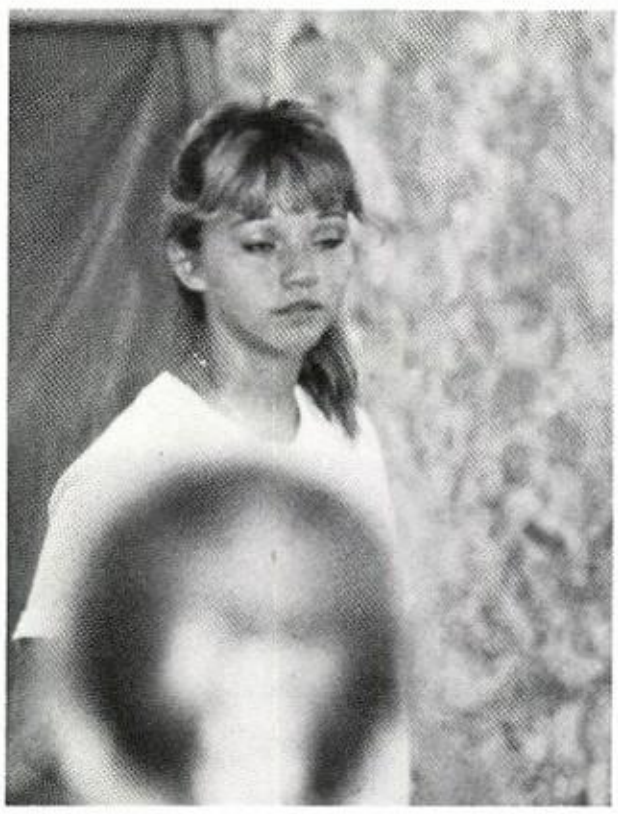
Top row Left to Right: Angie Jenkins, Amy Faunce, Shelly Neal. Bottom L. to R.: Renee' Rhodes, Jeannie Brandon.



Don't EVEN mess with me today!

Thank goodness I'm beautiful.

Yes! We all use Crest.

Varsity Cheerleaders

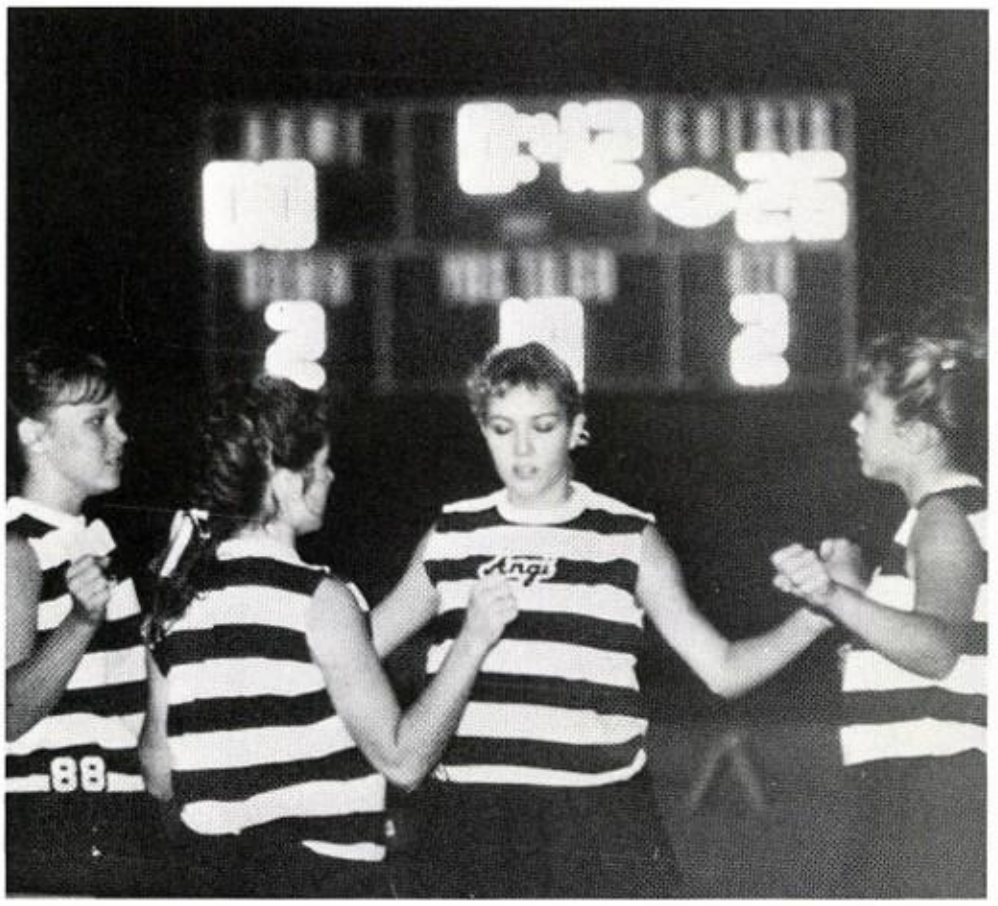
It's obvious who posed for the banner behind Amy, isn't it?

We owe a big hand to our cheerleaders. They go to camp in the summer and they practice long hours during the school year. In addition to that, they work with the elementary girls and teach them cheers, they prepare skits for the pep rallies, and they make signs to aid in the gigantic spirit that all Trojan fans have.

This year the cheerleaders had a spirit stick as great as our enthusiasm.



The cheerleaders learned one thing this year. When all else fails, pray!

OH - I've heard it through the grapevine; Can raisins really sing? Anything is possible in Cumby!

If I've told you once I've told you a thousand times, don't wear your hats in the building!!!!

These little cheerleaders are so awkward; I can't bear to look!

Jr. High Cheerleaders and Drill Team

At the time of this publication the baseball season had not ended; therefore, we're not sure how the team did. We do know some awards which they had received before school was out. Cumby High All-District Baseball Players: Pete Parnell - Pitcher; pitched a perfect game against North Hopkins; District MVP; Jeff Wheat - Infielder; Jay Petty - Outfielder; Lance Crump, Jeremy Wheat - Infielders - Honorable Mention; Coach of the Year - Eric Buck.

Many of the baseball players were also members of the track team. Jeff Wheat qualified for regionals, and there he came in 9th.

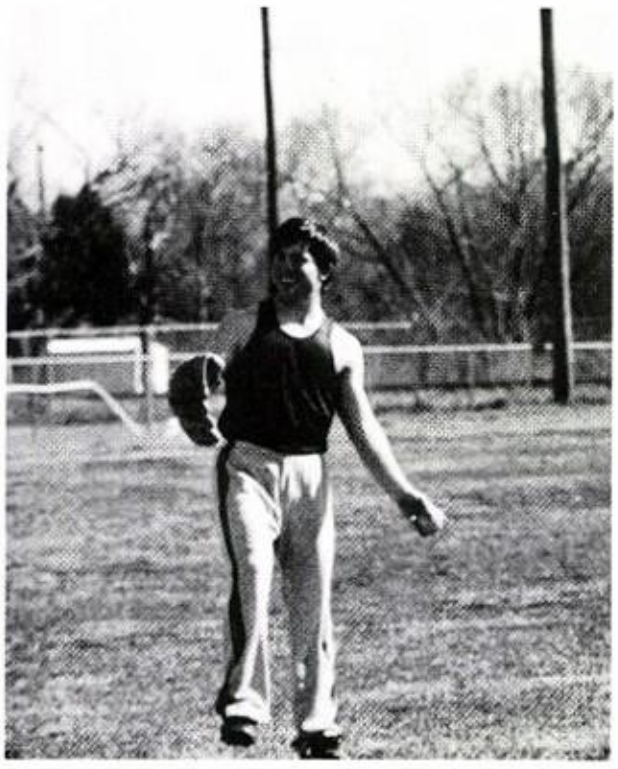
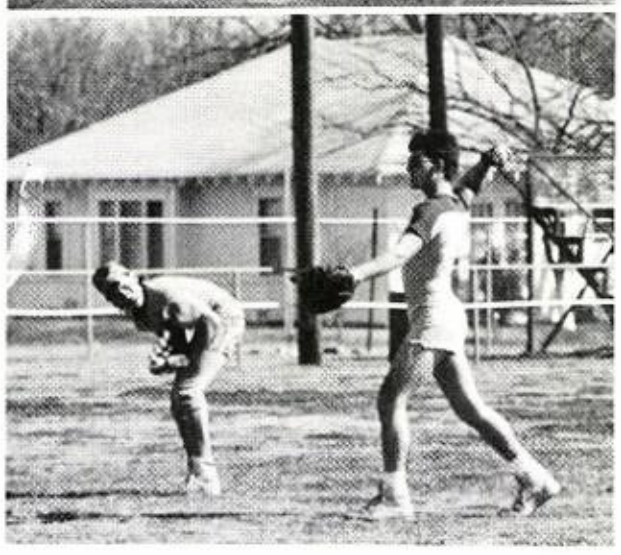
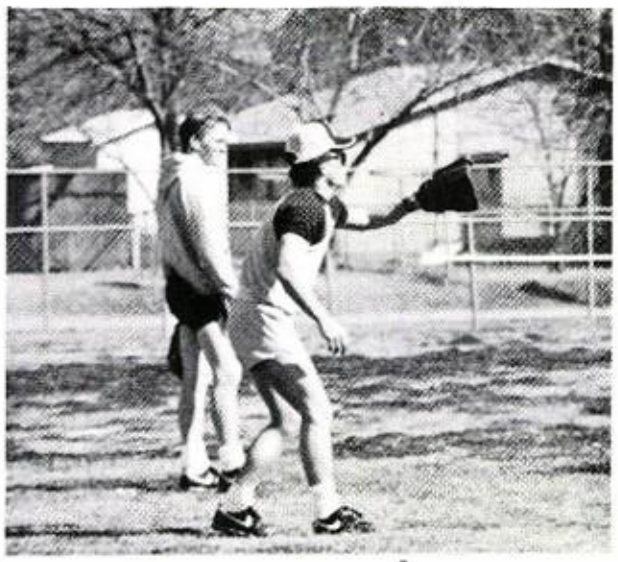
In Volleyball and Baseball - We're Always #1







It takes dedication and long, hard practices to make a winning team. We had that this year in the girl's Volleyball team and in the Varsity Baseball team.

Congratulations on another impressive year.

Sports Banquet

The Sports Banquet was held in Commerce this year. The speaker was Dr. Vince Gonion, Athletic Director, E.T.S.U. The Cumby Trojan Staff for '87-'88: Mac Thompson, Darla Sessom, Eric Buck, and Rhonda Struthers. Awards presented were: Brent Jones - Defensive Player of the Year, Football, Offensive Player of the Year, Basketball; Tony Jacobs - Offensive Player of the Year, Football, Defensive Player of the Year, Basketball; Junior High Girls: Nickie Hart - M.V.P. Track, Offensive Player, Basketball; M.V.P. Defensive Player, Basketball - Mistie Fyke; M.V.P. 7th Grade Volleyball - Christy Petty; M.V.P. 8th Grade Volleyball - Beth Fitch; The two most prestigious awards are the Trojan Heart Award and The Trojan of the Year Award. Trojan of the Year: Cindy Speights and Raymon Green; Trojan Heart Award: Jay Petty and Brenda Anderwald.

Junior Senior Prom

One highlight of any Senior's year is the Junior/Senior Prom. It's the last school dance the seniors will attend. The Juniors worked hard to decorate the Sulphur Springs Country Club using the theme Midnight Masquerade.

High School UIL

One of the highest academic honors for students is participation in UIL events. The following students went to Regional competition at Kilgore: Beth Nelle 1st in Lincoln/Douglas Debate; Jeff Wheat 1st in news writing; Jerry Bearden and Aaron Conner 2nd in Standard Team Debate; Delena Chittendon 2nd in spelling. The one act play won its zone and competed at District. Cast members: Shelley Neal, Angie Jenkins, Mary Lee, Aaron Conner, Devonna Wells, Jerry Bearden, Beth Mattison, Music - Beth Nelle, Lights - Renee' Rhodes, Director - Dyan Hale. Several cast members were cited for excellence: Aaron Conner - All Star Cast, Shelley Neal - Honorable Mention, Beth Mattison - Honorable Mention. Congratulations to the above students. You make us proud to be associated with Cumby High School. Special thanks to Mrs. Hale who spent many long hours after school, at night, and on weekends practicing.

Jr. High and Elementary U.I.L.

The following students placed in UIL events this year: Story Telling - 4th, Kathryn Wilson; Personal Writing - 1st, Joshua Monk; Spelling - 2nd, Jacob Wilson & 3rd, Christy Petty; Expressive Writing - 1st, Jacob Wilson; Number Sense - 5th, tie, Kathy Reese, Heath Petty; Oral Reading - 1st, Kelly Vinson & 5th, Kathy Reese; Expository Writing - 6th, Lee Hettich; Impromptu Speaking - 4th, Micah Mitchell. Congratulations - you make us proud!

'87-'88 Awards

Beginning with 1st grade through 6th academic award winners are listed first, then perfect attendance winners:

Smile, Bobby. You're on candid camera!

We don't know what's wrong with Christie, but someone heard her say, "It's in my "moush".
Moush???

After the homecoming dance, Jonathan and Bryan had trouble getting back into their school work. As you can see, they spent most of the dance knocking their brains together, and they were so "rattled" that it took them months to recover.

"Srs. 90"

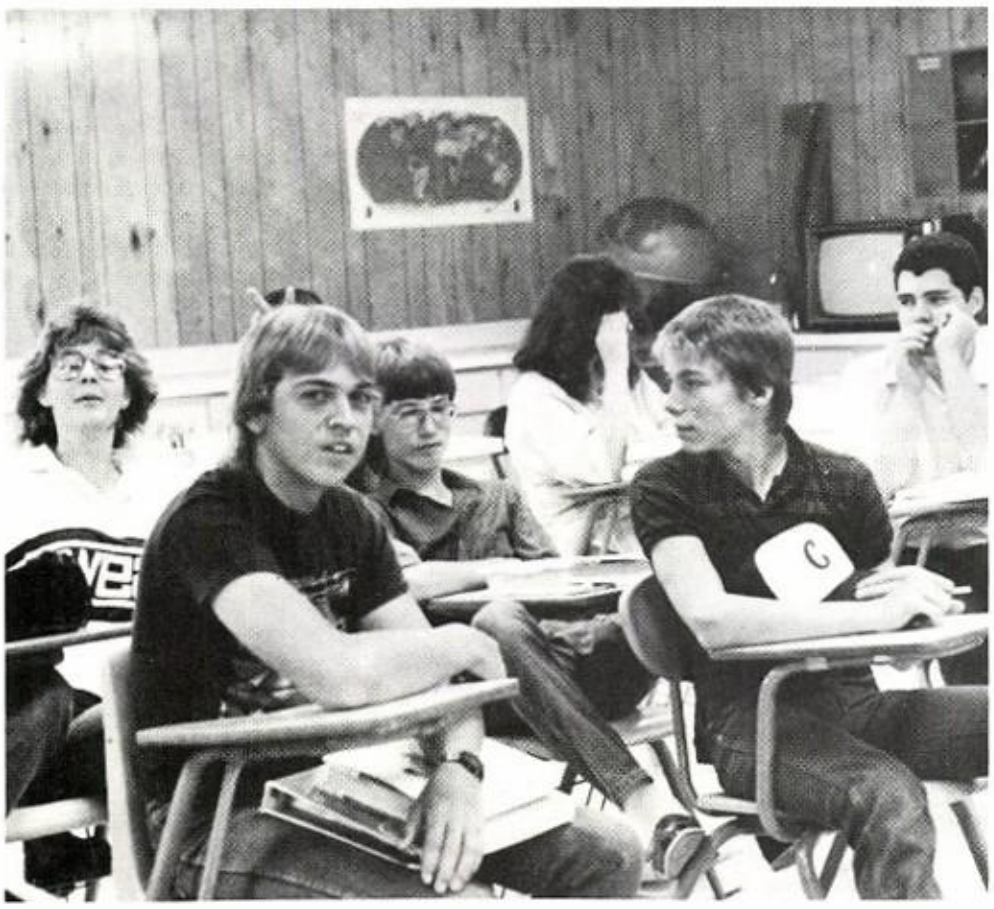
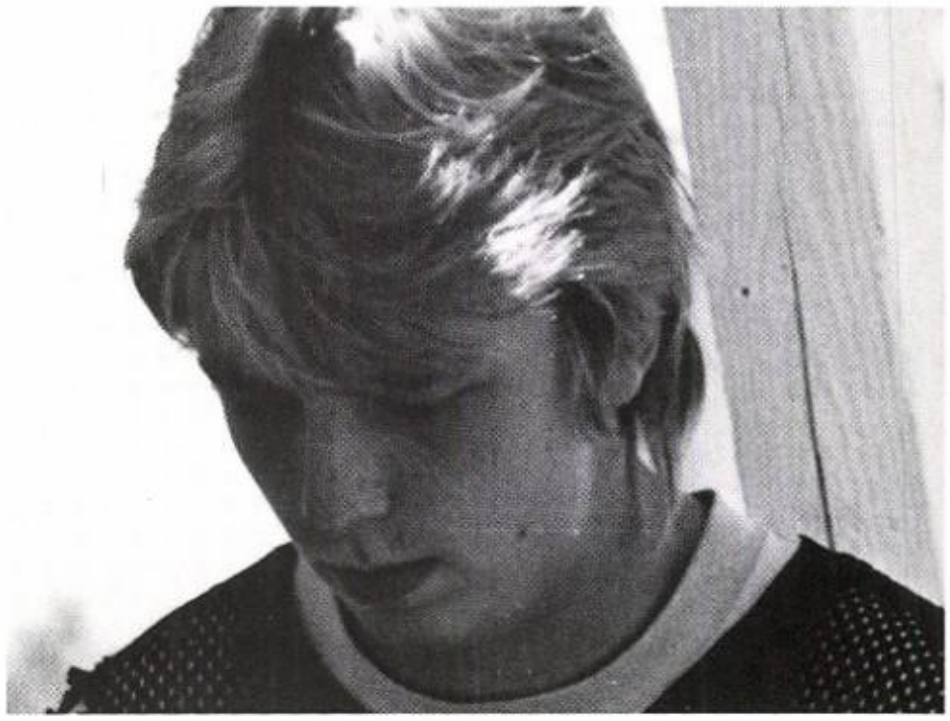
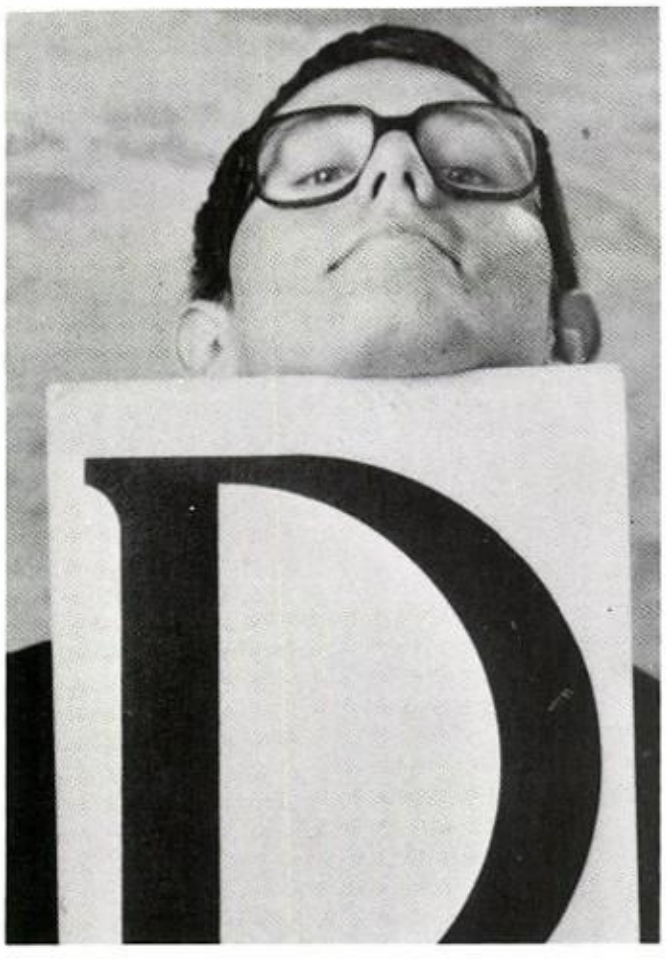
To the right is Jerry. He seems to be in a very sad, thoughtful mood. We think it has something to do with the secret we discovered about him and managed to get a picture of. (See the picture in the far right corner, bottom)

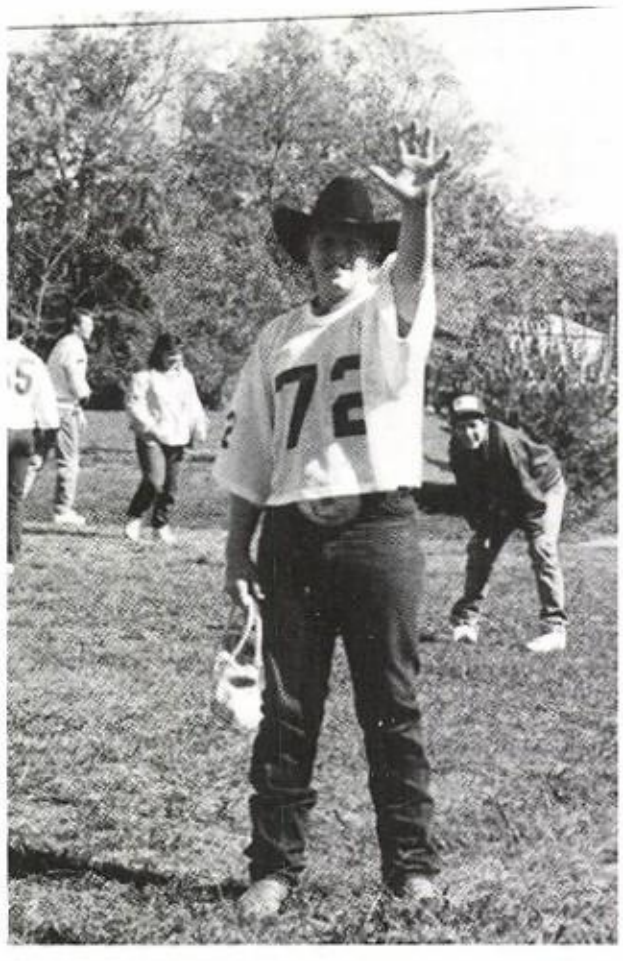


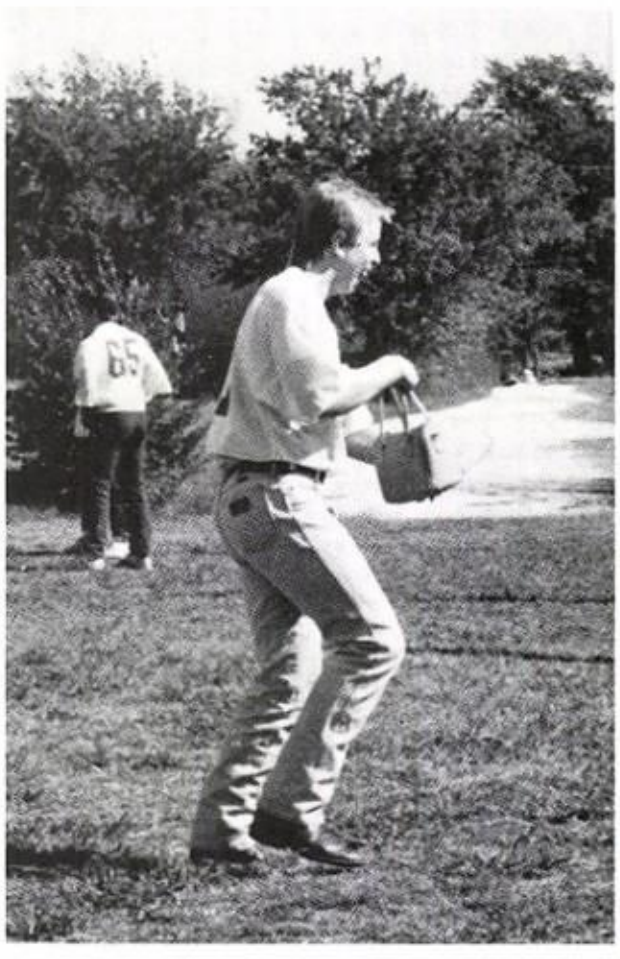


Unfortunately, classroom activities take up a lot of the sophomores' time.

Brent looks guilty. We think he's hiding something in his coat!







Above, we caught Curtis Johnson trying to learn his A,B,C's. All we can say is, it's about time!

Now here is an interesting turn of events! We don't know who started it first, Bryan or Jerry, but some of our sophomore guys have been "closet purse carriers" for who knows how long!!!!

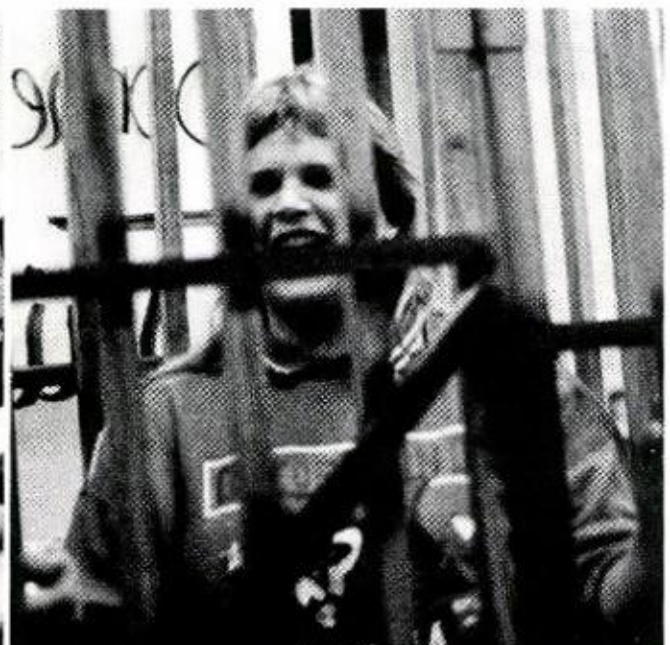
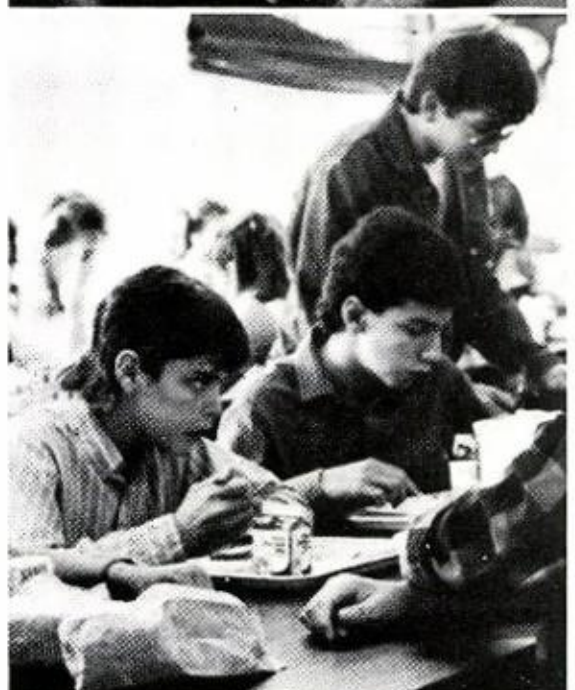
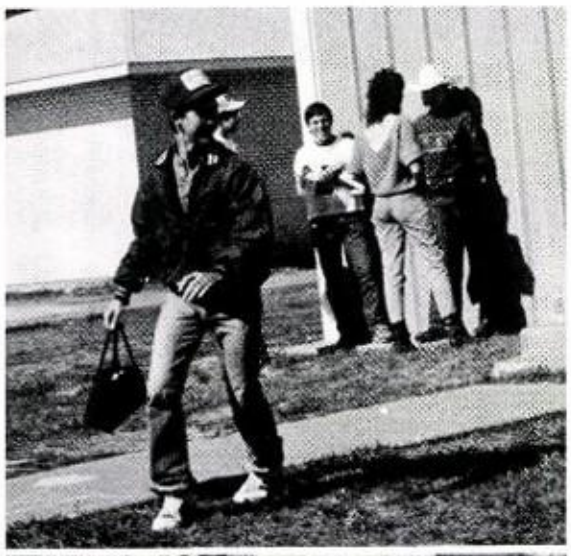
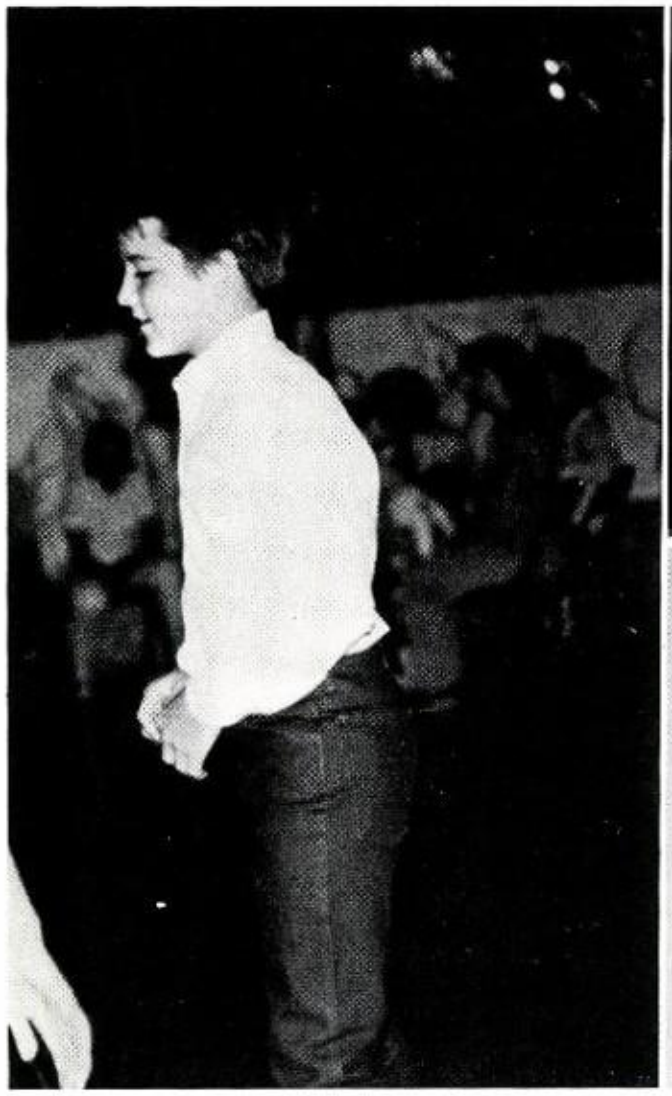
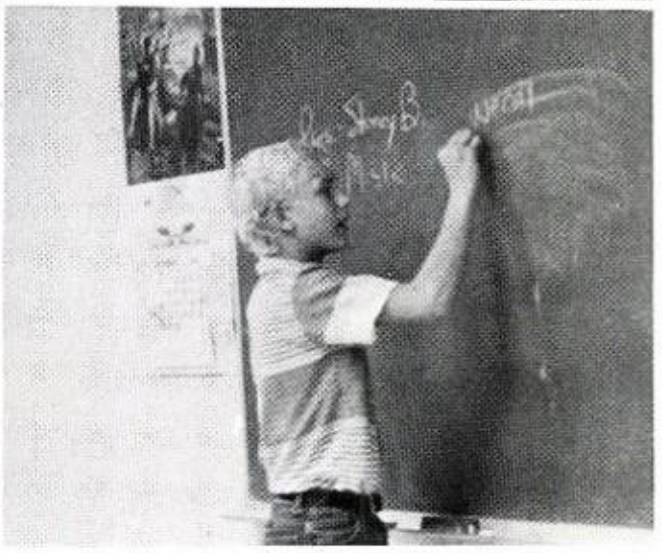
Friends . . . Loyalties . . . formed now to last through graduation and beyond . . .

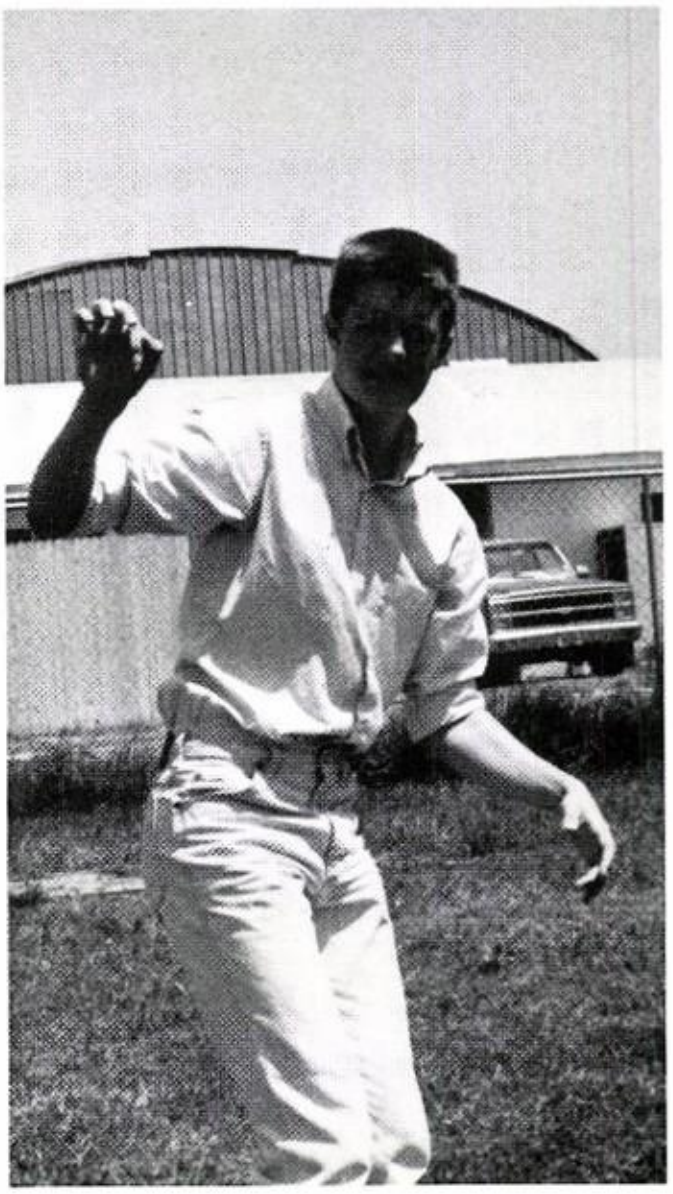


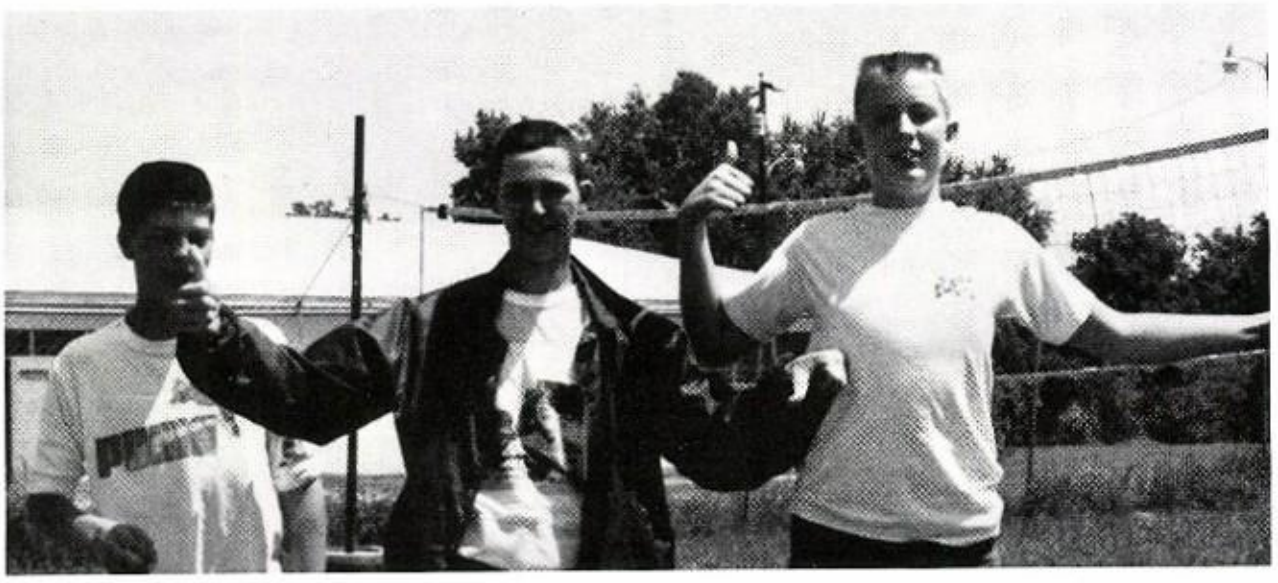












The Junior High Students are important to Cumby High. They participate in all activities. This year's Junior High track team included several sixth graders as well. Track team members: L. to R. back row: Brent Jones, Tony Jacobs, Mica Mitchell, Stoney Bearden, Coach Mac Thompson; Front Row: David Weaterbee, Heath Petty, Mickey Jones, Chad Crumpton, Pat Perkins.

Junior High students even set trends. As you can see above, the Junior High students were the first to get the short haircuts!

Jr. High

Faculty

Cumby hired a new superintendent and we caught him unaware making out the teacher and student handbooks. As you can see, Mr. Allcorn takes his job seriously.

Mr. Allcorn recommended the new principal. He said they were very similar. That's the truth! Here Mr. Crawford patrols the halls with his paddle.

We caught Dr. Hooks on the first day of the new school year. In his hands is House Bill 72 - the Bible of all teachers.

Miss Kivell had an unfortunate accident happen. She was demonstrating in class how to cast spells, only something went wrong and she hasn't been the same since!

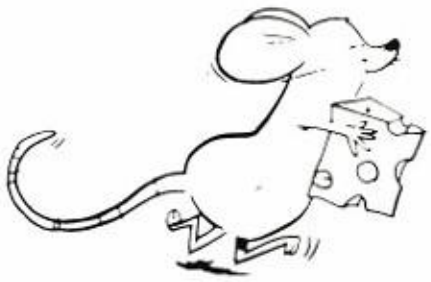
The cheerleaders got a new sponsor this year. Our photographer caught Mr. Jenkins practicing a new step for his cheerleaders.

Mrs. Knutson always has a book in her hand. Here she is trying to figure out the reading assignment for the day before she assigns it to her students.

Cumby is fortunate to have a fine science teacher. The only problem is that Mr. Thompson got confused in class and stuck his finger in the electrical socket instead of the plug.

Mrs. Hale is always looking for new things for her speech students to recite. And they love her for it, too!

Here we caught Mrs. Wilson on her way to lunch. Looks can be deceiving. What she lacks in size she makes up for in loudness.



Some people wonder why anyone would want to be on the school board. After all, it pays no money. Well, we know why. We caught 4 board members on their way to a board meeting one night.

Miss Denman enjoys her classes, but sometimes at the end of the day she has trouble uncrossing her eyes.

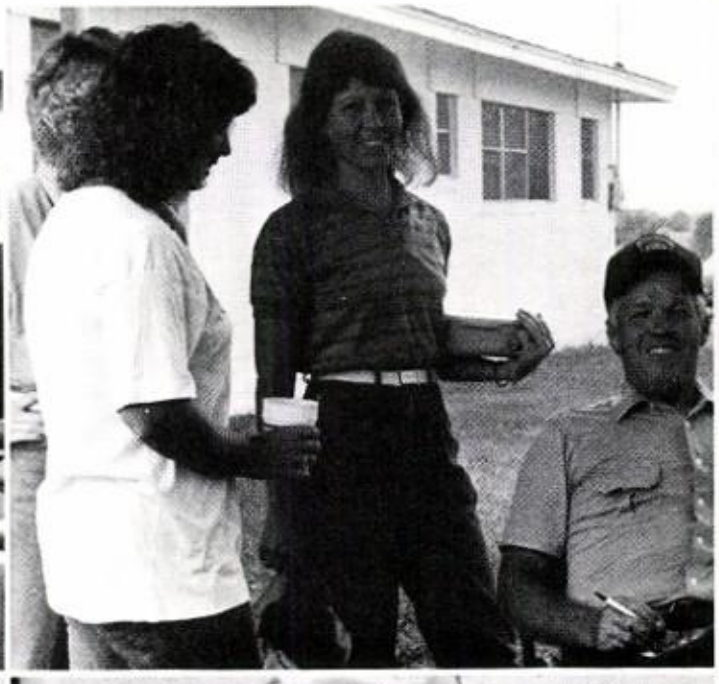
Teachers attend games and participate in other activities at school. Mrs. Kivell and Mac both like Coca Cola! Congratulations to Julie Smith who had a beautiful little girl not long after this picture was taken.



A principal has many duties, but I wonder if Mr. Crawford knew that taking lunch would be one of his. While Mr. Crawford slaved away at the table, Bill Jenkins had the right idea. Cook your own, outside, while sitting in a chair.

One place you're likely to find a number of teachers is at the weekly pep rallies during football season. Mr. Alcorn couldn't let Mr. Crawford out do him, so he put on his working hat and showed up at the gym one Saturday morning with hammer in hand.

The camera is always roving trying to catch students and teachers off guard. Some are successful at dodging the lens, but others, as you can see bottom left, are not so successful! Notice the looks of joy on the faces of those that we managed to snap before they tried to run away too.

It's impossible to hide when there are students in the room.

It seemed only fair that a picture of Mrs. Wilson be included since she managed to elude the school pictures this year. And then, we wanted to mention the spouses of the faculty. These people are drug hither and yon by their husbands/wives. Here we caught Debbie Thompson at one of the many games she attended through the year.

For a kindergartner, the first day of school can be a little frightening!

One of the best things about the beginning of the year is the school carnival. Kindergartners enjoy dressing up.
